

APL64 Developer Version

Keyboard Accessibility

Focus on a menu item

- Click the Alt key
- Use the Left/Right/Up/Down arrow keys to select the menu item

Access a GUI Control in a Window, Pane or Menu Item which has the focus

- Focus on the container of the GUI control
- Use the Tab/Shift+Tab keys to select the GUI control within the container

Modify the state of a GUI control which has the focus

- Slider
 - Use the PgUp/PgDown keys to move the slider
- Combobox
 - Use the F4 key to display/hide the list items
 - Use the Up/Down arrow keys to select a list item
- ListBox
 - Use the Up/Down arrow keys to select a list item
 - Click the Enter key to act upon that selection
- TextBox
 - The keyboard keys may be used to edit the TextBox text
 - Click the Esc key to accept the edited value
- CheckBox
 - Use the SpaceBar key to toggle the CheckBox state
- Menu Item which is Checkable
 - Click the Enter key to toggle the checked state and close the menu
- Menu Item which initiates an action if clicked
 - Click the Enter key to initiate the action
- Toolbar
 - Click the Alt key
 - Tab to the Toolbar
 - Tab to the selected Toolbar Button
 - Click the Space key

Exit a GUI Control in a Window, Pane or Menu Item which has the focus

- Click the Esc key

For more information about keyboard accessibility go here and here.